

Sunday Classical Music Series

Presented by the Babylon Village Arts Council in partnership with the Friends of the Babylon Public Library

Extra Chí A Flute and Piano Duo

Sunday, April 15th, 2:00 pm

Extra Chi showcases their versatility with a repertoire that mixes classical traditions, jazz influences, and New Age spirit.

Terence Purtell is a consummate pianist, organist, vocalist and musical director. His Classical training is complemented by experience with jazz, rock and theater productions. Since his Carnegie Hall debut at age 17, Terence continues to play major venues through out Manhattan and Long Island, including Lincoln Center and Saint Agnes Cathedral. Recent television appearances include CNN, QPTV and Telecare.

Flutist Michelle Lisi has traveled the East Coast performing as both a soloist and member of numerous ensembles. Highlights include playing at the United States Capitol in Washington D.C., the New York State Capitol in Albany, and in Montreal, Quebec. She has produced and hosted both Classical and Jazz radio programs in the Long Island/New York area and is currently a professor in the Radio/Television/Film Department at Hofstra University.

Babylon Public Library, 24 So. Carll Avenue, Babylon Village
Information 631-669-1810, www.babylonvillagearts.org

FREE ADMISSION

This program is partially funded by the Suffolk County Executive's Office, member and other community support.

