

Sunday Classical Music Series

Presented by the Babylon Village Arts Council in partnership with the Friends of the Babylon Public Library

JOHN MURATORE

Sunday, April 28, 2:00 pm

Classical guitarist John Muratore has been the featured soloist at numerous international venues including the Academie Festival des Arcs (France), St. Petersburg (Russia) Chamber Concerts, the Atelier International Concert Series in Paris and AIMS (American Institute for Musical Studies, Graz, Austria).

Recent appearances as concerto soloist have been with the Ridgefield Symphony, Vermont Symphony and Symphony by the Sea under the direction of Jonathan McPhee.

Mr. Muratore will perform a program that celebrates the various influences and diversity of music that has been written for classical guitar, from traditional Spanish to Latin American dances, opera, folk and jazz.

Babylon Public Library,
24 So. Carll Avenue, Babylon Village
Information 631-669-1810
FREE ADMISSION

This program is partially funded by the Suffolk County Executive's Office, member and other community support.

